County Judge and Commissioners' Court

Gentlemen:

I would sincerely like to thank each of you for approving and establishing the new position of Assistant Court Coordinator. The stress and burden of the workload will be greatly lessened by the assistant.

Just to let you know, Judge McGaughey has hired Amanda Cunningham. Amanda resides in Nocona and is currently employed by Roger Williams and Zach Renfro, but will begin work for the 97th District Court on Monday, October 19, 2015. Amanda has several years of legal and computer experience. She is acquainted with county and district court personnel, attorneys practicing in the 97th, and persons in other offices involved in the Court's operations.

With your awareness of the present and future needs for the Court, you have enabled us to efficiently and promptly maintaining daily operations and put into effect legal requirements to monitor disposition of cases. Again, please let me personally say "THANK YOU"!

Sincerely,
