

PUBLIC NOTICE

CLAY COUNTY INDIGENT HEALTH CARE PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY STANDARDS

The Clay County Commissioners' Court has designated $100,000.00 of its General Revenue Tax Levy for the 2022 fiscal year, for the purpose of providing Indigent Health Care for Clay County residents as mandated by the State of Texas in accordance with the Indigent Health Care and Treatment Act.

Eligibility for the Indigent Health Care Program is based on:

1. County residence
2. Household composition
3. Income
4. Resources

To apply for the Indigent Health Care Program, an applicant or his representative may request an application from the County Indigent Health Care Coordinator's office, located at 214 North Main, in the Clay County Courthouse Annex. The applicant will be given or mailed a Form 100, Application for County Medical Assistance, on the same day the request is received. Assistance in filling out the application will be given if requested by the applicant.

By signing the application form, the applicant swears to the truth of the information supplied. Persons who intentionally misrepresent information to receive benefits they are not entitled to receive are:

1. Responsible for reimbursing the County for the cost of benefits they were ineligible to receive; and
2. May be subject to prosecution under the Texas Penal Code.

Any changes that occur which differ from the information given on the original application must, under law, be reported to the County Indigent Health Care Office within 14 days of their occurrence. Failure to report such changes can result in denial of eligibility.

Danja Bloodworth, Coordinator
Clay County Indigent Health Care Program
(940) 538-5911